TO: SUCCESSFUL APPLICANTS JUNE 2005 FIRST-YEAR LAW STUDENTS' EXAMINATION

The Committee of Bar Examiners (Committee) is pleased to inform you that you passed the June 2005 First-Year Law Students' Examination.

Eligibility to take the General Bar Examination depends upon the completion of the educational requirements as set forth in Rule VII of the Rules Regulating Admission To Practice Law In California (Rules). You will be entitled to either one year or up to two years of law study credit depending on when you passed the examination and when you first qualified to take it. Please refer to the Rules as to how much law study credit you will be granted toward eventually qualifying to take the General Bar Examination and how much more must be completed.

Please review Rule II and Rule VI of the Rules regarding the applications that you must file for the General Bar Examination, Moral Character Determination, and the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination and when they should be submitted.

Multiple-Choice: You may inspect the multiple-choice portion of the examination at the Office of Admissions (San Francisco or Los Angeles) nearest the location at which you took the examination from August 29, 2005 through December 29, 2005. All who may wish to review their multiple-choice answers cannot be accommodated at the same time. Appointments for a period of one and one-half hours, in a proctored situation (no notes permitted) will be made on a first-come, first-served basis from August 29, 2005 through December 29, 2005. You are limited to a single appointment. Appointments to inspect your papers must be made in advance. To make an appointment, call the Office of Admissions: (415) 538-2303 in San Francisco and (213) 765-1500 in Los Angeles. Appointments may be scheduled at 9:00 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 3:00 p.m.

Essay: Requests for essay books will be honored from August 29, 2005 through December 29, 2005. You may pick up your essay answers at the Office of Admissions nearest the location at which you took the examination, or you may request that your essay answers be sent to you by sending a signed request to that office by using the attached form. If you intend to pick up your answers from the San Francisco Office of Admissions, you must call the day before you intend to do so. Arrangements will be made so you can pick them up at the office on the intended day between either 10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. or 2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

* Keys to Grades: A - Excellent (660+)

B - Good (620 - 659)

C - Fair (580 - 619)

D - Barely Passed: Considerable improvement in rate of progress will have to be shown to pass the General Bar Examination (560 - 579)

^{*} All numerical scores are total scaled scores.
